J. C. Jones, the jeweler, is just finishing one of the best business buildings in the city. The building was practically finished two months ago and during a heavy rain storm the cellar was flooded and destroyed the foundation on one side of the structure, necessitating tearing down on one side and rebuilding it. He hopes to get into the building next month with a complete line of jeweler's goods and all sorts of musical instruments.

FIRST 1,000

As an evidence of the growth of the Tucumcari News we take great pride in telling our subscribers and patrons that the one thousandth subscriber in Quay county was booked Monday morning. Estimating that five persons read the paper to each actual subscriber in the county, 5,000 people in Quay county read the paper each week. We appreciate this splendid patronage and will try to show it during the next twelve months, at the end of which time we hope to double the county circulation.

HOW ABOUT IT, DO YOU WANT A FAIR?

There is a call for a meeting of the citizens of Tucumcari and Quay county to convene at the court house on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock August 17th, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of a county fair this fall, say in October or November. The committee whose names are attached to the call would be pleased to see a representative meeting of the people and have those present give their views on the subject at length. Do not overlook this call as it is a matter of importance to the community and county.

The Angel of Death Saddens a Tucumcari Home

Thursday morning about 9 o'clock the angel of death summoned from the home of Judge R. L. Patterson his wife, who died of typhoid fever after an illness of two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson were among the pioneer settlers of this city and the family is highly esteemed by the best citizens of this community.

The husband and four children, the youngest being a baby girl less than a year old, are left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother whose loss to them is greater than it is in the province of human intelligence to understand.

Mrs. Patterson was an exemplary Christian woman and a member of the Baptist church for most of her life and was ready to meet the summons to eternal life and rest from the cares and trials of earth. It is as natural to die as it is to be born, but the call of a member of a happy family wrings the heart strings of those remaining in a manner that only the power and the goodness of God can assuage.

The life of Mrs. Patterson was spent in the care of her family and devotion to the Almighty and the call to eternity was never answered by a Christian woman who was better prepared to say: "O Death, where is thy sting?" "O Grave, where is thy victory?"

The funeral took place from the Baptist church, of which she was a member, at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. W. H. DuBose, pastor of the Presbyterian church, the funeral sermon being spoken by Rev. J. W. Campbell, pastor of the M. E. Church, South. The song service was conducted by Mrs. E. Saxon. The selections were: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Asleep in Jesus," and "Shall We Gather at the River?"

Out of respect to the family, every business in Tucumcari closed doors from 3 to 4 o'clock and several hundred persons followed the remains to the cemetery, where a beautiful service was held before the body was lowered to its last resting place. The entire ceremony was under the auspices of Tucumcari Lodge No. 29, Knights of Pythias, of which Judge Patterson is a member.

The entire community sympathizes most deeply with Judge Patterson and family in this the greatest bereavement any family can have befall them.

M. B. Goldenberg has sold the triangle lot opposite Gross. Kelly & Co., and Dr. Tomlinson's drug store to Dr. H. D. Nichols. Dr. Nichols will build on the property soon. The structure will be 58x100 feet, and the plans so we are informed are for a four story building.
